A BIT DISAPPOINTED

By deenice

I was disappointed in Tamia's behavior, considering all the trouble she's been through. It seems like this woman didn't have an ounce of fight in her when it comes to Dominic. I really thought Tamia had learned her lesson after doing time in prison. Instead she came out just as naive as she went in, and allowed this man to play her for a fool once again. I wanted to see growth in this book, I wanted to see a new Tamia. Not this naive, gullible woman who can't tell the difference between her friends and enemies.

Inspite of it all, things turned out well for Tamia.
