My name is Chase Cooper, and this is my fourth diary as a 6th grade ninja. A few weeks have breezed by since my last entry, but things don't stay quiet at my school for long. The science fair is coming up, and everyone's been working crazy hard to get their projects finished on time. But at the beginning of the week, projects started disappearing only to be found later completely destroyed. Did I mention the anonymous invitation I got that sent me on a messed up treasure hunt in search of the missing projects? Yeah, that happened too. Now the fate of the science fair rests in my hands as I try to stay one step ahead of the culprit in the most bizarre week of my life.

Diary of a 6th Grade Ninja 4: A Game of Chase is a hilarious adventure for children ages 9-12. Written by Marcus Emerson and Noah Child.

Love it

By R. Sweeney

We all loved reading it together. Start at 1 and read them all. Fun and young kid friendly. Talks a lot about doing the right thing.

My boys love these books

By Earth Momma

It's difficult to find stories that will capture the imagination of my 7 yo son, as reading is a bit of a struggle for him right now. I was happy to land on this series and we are now onto number 6. My 5 yo boy also likes them. We all curl up in my king-sized bed with my Kindle at night, and I read to them. Sometimes the books they like drive me crazy, but I find that I'm enjoying these right along with them. The occasional sketched pictures are good for breaking up the text for them. They also love pressing their fingers on words to highlight in the Kindle's dictionary, as well as swiping the pages. Anything that keeps them reading makes me happy!
