Good help

By feedooweb

I needed a quick and good help to write my first CV and I was overwhelmed by what I found on the internet. It was too much and it was all ambivalent. This site says "Green" and the other says "Red". So I got confused and needed some good and proven help.

So I bought this ebook randomly and it was a great help.

My CV now looks good! Thanks!

Become a super-star candidate

By rryr1

A phone isn't glamorous until it's a "smart phone."

A TV is nothing special until you're forced to wear 3-D glasses to get its full effect.

You aren't the seemingly amazing candidate for the job you want until your CV says so!

"Perfect CV" gives tips to presenting yourself as the candidate that's not only well qualified, but most qualified for the jobs you seek.

Learn what employers are looking for and the exact way to communicate they've found it in you. Use the bulk of examples to help you sharpen the CV you have or may be developing.

The book is packed with the know how you must have if you don't want to be just another candidate, but a name, a face, and the future employee of the job your new CV says you deserve.

Bad Choice

By Connie Horton

I was expecting more out of this book. The resume example were not detailed. It really did not give me insight on how to write a winning CV. There were a lot of misspelled words and grammar error. I would not recommend this book to others.
