In 1982, Olivia entered Indonesia as member of the entourage of H.H. The Dalai Lama during His consecration of Borobudur. She continued her pilgrimage there by the name of "Tara" and was requested to write the History of Buddhism in Indonesia by the ethnic Javanese Buddhist teacher, pak Sumarsoeno. Hesitatingly, she agreed only to discover that he was to pass away several days later. Feeling compelled to keep her promise to him, she undertook the task and soon found out that the materials needed, necessary visas to remain in the country, and persons able to convey historical information were uncannily provided so that she was able to gather the following information for future readers.

AT LAST A BOOK ON JAVANESE BUDDHISM!!!

By A Customer

How wonderful that someone has taken the trouble to document the secret history of the remaining ethnic Javanese Buddhist tantrayana lineage holders who give credence to the fact that Islam is merely a recent cultural veneer and that the heart-essence of ancient Hindu-Buddhism continues to beat strongly in the secret heart of Central Indonesia. Western historians have documented Indonesia as taken over by Islam, are herewith proven wrong by the ethnic Javanists who continue to commune with their ancient rulers in the paranormal way which is natural to them. Buddhism, which has been predicted to reappear in this region, shows itself in an unfamiliar manner and the important opening of Borobudur in 1982 by H.H. The Dalai

Lama may have been the signal of its rebirth. Borobodur is one of the most important archaeological sites, one of the most mysteriously beautiful sites, one of the most symbolic sites of Buddhist spirituality in the world. This is a fundamental manual that any student of South-East Asian studies or Javanese & Balinese who value their own religion should not be without. The book is rich in quotations from the original sources. Interestingly enough, as an aside, Ms de Haulleville is the daughter of the Belgian poet, Baron de Haulleville, the neice of Aldous Huxley, and her only son has entered a life-vocation as a Buddhist monk in the Tibetan tradition, having attained perfect fluency in the Tibetan language, living most of his life in Asian monasteries within the direct lineage of the Dalai Lama.

AN INNER WORLD OF REALITY REVEALED.

By Rachel M. Rosenberg

In this new book by Olivia de Haulliville, daughter of Baron de Haulliville, a new landscape has been uncovered & disclosed to the eye of the beholder. You will not believe some of the spiritual "facts" disclosed in this book, especially concerning the mysterious umbilicus of a spiritual nexus called Boroburdur, which is one of the greatest archaeological sites in the world, rivalling the Gizeh pyramids and Machu Picchu in both beauty and spiritual importance. Beneath the surface of current manifestations of Islam in Indonesia, in Java and in Bali is a melange of Hinduism and Buddhism which is ancient, being a direct transfer from classical Buddhism of India at the time of Emperor Asoka. This book is about that hidden vein in the body of Java, that tradition of occult Buddhism and the mysterious aspects of it as it shows itself in Javanese life. It is a book that every library should have, whether institutional or private, giving a general guide through the fundamentals of Javanese Buddhism, a rarely examined topic. Here are shamans, mystics, landscapes from dreams, with copious quotations from the Europeans who first investigated Java as well as the scholars and mystics of Java themselves.

Javanism revisited

By Peter Trompetter

I discovered Olivia-under her Buddhist name Tara-in the center of the old Indonesian religion in Solo. From the beginning, our encounter was that of soulmates. When I had to receive special initiations, she always knew the exact location of the sacred places, due to her long and intensive research of Javanese mysticism. She did not conduct the research in a western, scientific manner but in an intuitive, personable female way of complete involvement. I remember visiting Boroboudour with her. As soon as we arrived, it started to rain so all the tourists disappeared and we stood all alone there at the top. Suddenly I heard a very low sound, becoming higher and higher until it transformed into pure light! I then experienced the manifestation of all the gods as transformed into One. Since that time, I stay in close contact with Indonesian mysticism.
