A great love story

By Kesha Chenelle

A fantastic ending to a great love story. Part picks up right as part 1 left off. I was glad to see Candace seeing a therapist and she was helping her to break the hold her mother had over her. I thought Linda's techniques were kinda weird in the beginning but it worked to help Candace address the problems. Candace didn't want to be with Taylor because of the lies and deceit and tried to friend zone him but that didn't work out as she thought. There was a lot more sex scenes esp after they made up and became a couple again. I was so happy Candace was able to finally tell Taylor she loved him. Of course she loved him but after he came to her rescue and saved her and the baby life she really had no other choice. Candace is now living the fairy tale life with her baby and now fiance. I thought it was so sweet of Candace to propose to Taylor after she didn't accept his proposal. Taylor is head over heels in love her and was able to break through and get her to love. As they say love conquers all and Taylor was set on making Candace love him and that exactly what happened. I loved this series and could read it over and over again. Job well done!!!

Another great read

By Pamela Johnston Ward

As usual, Miss Jenesequa did not disappoint. This is the continuation from part 1. I just loved Candice and Tays relationship. They had awesome chemistry. I started reading and did not stop until I was done. I hated to see the story end. Great job Miss Jenesequa and Royalty Publishing House.

She finally grew....

By Tucora Norman

I was happy that the growth in Candice was present in this part of the series. At first I thought Linda was a bit much but as I continued to read I saw how much help she was to Candi and Tay. I liked Tays character even more this book because although he loved Candi, he made her fight for him! When she ran thru the airport looking for her man, I was excited. Finally she's ready to be an adult and push her moms moral to the background. The Dre & Chelsea situation was such a double standard when it came to the threesome discussion. On the other hand bi or straight , if you're in a committed relationship it should be treated that way. I did think the crazy gf Hallie was played, like she went through all that to hurt Tay knowing he didn't care about Aya, it just didn't make sense to me. At the end of it all, I was relieved the baby and Candi were okay because with the emotional struggles she faced the last thing she needed was that type of loss.
